Sunset Properties Names Al Ward as its Ocean Isle Beach Broker-in-Charge

Ocean Isle Beach, North Carolina – Jan 2013/Sunset Properties/Press Release – Sunset Properties, a leading professional vacation rental and sales firm headquartered in Sunset Beach, North Carolina is pleased to announce that it has selected Al Ward as its new Broker-in-Charge for its Ocean Isle Beach office.

Ward will direct the growth and operations of the company's rental and sales efforts at Ocean Isle Beach. Ward has been a licensed real estate broker since 1983, and sold real estate with several area companies since 2005. Prior to that, he served as General Manager for Acme Oil Company for nine years. Ward is a graduate of UNC-Chapel Hill with a BS in Business Administration. He and his wife Kathy are Brunswick County natives that live in Shallotte, and have three grown children.

"We're excited to have Al join our team," said Pat Wolfe, General Manager of Sunset Properties. "That office is an important part of our company, and he will be leading our efforts to continue the growth on the island of Ocean Isle that we have seen over our first five years there."
